HOW TO REPLY TO THIS NOTICE:

I. Review the SMALL ENTITY status shown above.

If the SMALL ENTITY is shown as YES, verify your current SMALL ENTITY status:

approximately square region, an average of slopes of the curved surface of the rough surface with respect to a base plane of the film is not less than $59-20n$ degrees and not more than 70 degrees, and an absolute value of a numerical value A_{sk} calculated in accordance with the equation set forth in the claim by using all the height data of the rough surface is not more than 1.2 is satisfied at substantially any position on the light control film. This combination of limitations was not shown or suggested by the prior art.

Claim 7 is allowable over the prior art because claim 7 sets forth a light control film having a rough surface, wherein a condition that, for a curved surface of the rough surface in an approximately square region having an area of 1 mm^2 or larger defined at an arbitrary position on the rough surface, by using height data of the rough surface measured at predetermined intervals in the longitudinal and transverse directions in the approximately square region, an average of slopes of the curved surface (θ_{nv} (degree)) of the rough surface with respect to a base plane of the film is not less than 27 degrees and not more than 70 degrees, and a numerical value (A_{ku}) calculated in accordance with the equation set forth in the claim by using all the height data of the rough surface is not less than 1.5 and not more than 5.0 is satisfied at substantially any position on the light control film. This combination of limitations was not shown or suggested by the prior art.

Claim 8 is allowable over the prior art because claim 8 sets forth a light control film having a rough surface formed by a pattern layer comprising a material having a refractive index n , wherein a condition that, for a curved surface of the rough surface in an approximately square region having an area of 1 mm^2 or larger defined at an arbitrary position on the rough surface by using height data of the rough surface measured at predetermined intervals in the longitudinal and transverse directions in the approximately square region, an average of slopes of the curved surface of the rough surface with respect to a base plane of the film is not less than $59\text{-}20^\circ$ degrees and not more than 70° degrees, and a numerical value A_{ku} calculated in accordance with the equation set forth in the claim by using all the height data of the rough surface is not less than 1.5 and not more than 5.0 is satisfied at substantially any position on the light control film. This combination of limitations was not shown or suggested by the prior art.
